

Positional Game. Print the pages. Go over the positional words with the pictures on the first page. Next, cut apart the bears and guide the children to put a bear in each position on the caves on page three using the words from the first page. Laminate for longer use.

